

COAL OPERATORS CONFERENCE

Forty Years In Service Of Same Company

L. B. ROUND

L. B. Round, vice-president and general manager of Pennsylvania Power Company, is today celebrating the completion of 40 years' continuous service with the company.

He started on July 1, 1907 as a meter reader for the company, which was then known as the New Castle Electric Company. During his years of service he has made his way through various departments of the company, gaining experience in practically all phases of the company's operations. He has been vice-president and general manager since September, 1931, and in all the years of his association with the company in the local community he has been an active leader in civic affairs.

His standing in the electric utility industry has been evidenced by his long-time service as a member of the executive committee of the Pennsylvania Electric Association, as well as a past president of the association.

Pa Newsc Observes

Hollyhock season, now out in full bloom, has been brought on by the warm weather of the past few days.

McConnell's Mills Park had an overflow crowd of picnickers and sightseers on Sunday out enjoying the beauty of the falls and getting relief from the heat among the park's huge, cool rocks.

One of Pa Newsc's family thinks that the weeds along the curbs of some of the streets of New Castle should be cut. In some places the weeds are at least a foot high.

To G. R. Weber, West Wallace avenue, goes the honor of claiming the first ripe red tomato from his garden picked June 30. Mr. Weber has his garden on the George Henderson property on Northview avenue.

Two comely young ladies attired in slacks were gingerly thumbing their way east Monday afternoon at the intersection of East Washington street and Butler avenue. Quite a number of cars passed the would-be riders up before they secured transportation.

In the odd sights department, a young lad of about 12 was seen proudly shining up his dad's jeep in the East Side district Monday. The youth had been promised a ride if he did a good job of shining up the small machine.

One of the beauty spots at the present time in New Castle is to be seen on North Mercer street, north of Edison avenue, where the wall rose garden at the Hoyt property is in full bloom. The roses were a little late in blooming this year.

June, which is generally more associated with brides and roses, also produced a bumper crop of babies, the records of the James Memorial hospital reveal. Last month, 133

River Climbs To 40-Foot Level At St. Louis Today

Mississippi River At 130
Year High As Result Of Midwest Floods

THOUSANDS MORE TO BE EVACUATED (BULLETIN)

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—(INS)—Coast Guardsmen began the evacuation of 5,000 to 10,000 persons in the St. Louis area at 5 a. m. today as the Mississippi river flood waters rushed over the top of the Prairie Dupont levee which protects a 69,000-acre area on the Illinois side.

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—(INS)—Heavy new rains swelled the Mississippi river to a 130-year high of 40 feet today.

Coast Guardsmen prepared to evacuate 5,000 to 10,000 persons in the area as the floodwaters crept over the Prairie Dupont levee which protects a 69,000-acre area on the Illinois side of the river.

A total of 2.1 inches of rain fell in slightly more than three hours last night, causing a flash flood in sections of North St. Louis.

The critical situation at Dupont, Ill., and surrounding areas spurred levee workers to desperate labor.

Merrimack Rising

The Merrimack river, which runs into the Mississippi south of St. Louis, was reported rising at a rate of 3 inches an hour. Its waters pouring into the Mississippi were threatening to aggravate the situation from St. Louis to Chester, Ill.

Efforts Are Made To Halt Collapse Of Paris Parley

PARIS, July 1.—(INS)—The Tripartite conference on European self-aid reassembly for what may be its final session today but last-minute efforts were made to save it from collapse.

Plans already are under way for a future Anglo-French session either in London or Paris on the assumption that continued Soviet cooperation at the present meeting will be impossible.

Yet it was learned that French Foreign Minister Bidault has framed a counter-proposal to the original Anglo-French plan which Russia opposes. The initial idea conformed with Secretary of State Marshall's idea that the European nations draw their own self-recovery programs before asking for United States aid.

If Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov asks time to consider the fresh suggestion—whose nature is not definitely known—wind-up of the present meeting, expected for tonight, may be postponed for a while at least.

France Holds Five For Conspiracy

PARIS, July 1.—(INS)—French authorities seized another army officer today in their roundup of suspects in what has been termed a widespread Monarchist-military plot to establish a dictatorship in France.

The new prisoner was identified only as "Captain Prat" of the air force. Authorities said he served as a liaison between aeronautics, circles and the leaders of the right-wing "army" known as the "Black Maquis" whose plans were said to have embraced a projected "march on Paris" with the aid of armored forces from the French occupational army in Germany.

His arrest brings to five the number of conspirators who have been seized since French secret police went into lightning action yesterday.

FIND IS GUILTY

HAMBURG, July 1.—(INS)—Seventeen former Gestapo members and a German policeman pleaded not guilty today to a charge of murdering 50 RAF officers after a mass escape from a Silesian prison camp in 1944.

The prosecutor at the military trial in Hamburg accused them of violating all the rules of war in killing the flyers after they had been recaptured.

RECOVERING AT 103

KANE, Pa., July 1.—(INS)—Attendees at the Kane Community hospital reported today that 103-year-old Mrs. Anna Parsons was "fairly good" after fracturing her hip in a fall at her home.

Work Being Speeded On Seven Road Projects In City And County

At least seven street or highway projects are in progress in the city or county at the present time. With the arrival of fall, New Castle and Lawrence county should have some of the smoothest streets and roads that motorists have been able to enjoy for a long time.

Having been hampered for some time, during the spring months, contractors are making up for lost time and are really progressing in their work. Rain has failed to stop the work in the past two weeks, with many man hours gained on every job that has been begun.

The S. J. Groves and Sons Company, who hold the contract for Route 422 from New Castle to the Ohio line, finished their excavation

Route 18 Work

Concrete is soon to be laid by the New Castle Duntile Company on their Route 18 contract, which calls for three and a half miles of new three and four lane road from Walmo to the intersection of the West Middlesex-Sharon road. A 142 foot long bridge is being constructed near the New Castle Country Club. The Lawrence county office of (Continued on Page Two)

District Head Of PSES Moves Office To City

George E. Goodill And Assistant To Administer District 11 From New Castle

George E. Goodill, manager of District 11 of the Pennsylvania State Employment Service, and his assistant, Orville C. Dawson, have established headquarters in the Lawrence Savings and Trust building and will administer the five-county area from this city in the future, it was announced today.

The district manager, a veteran of World Wars I and II, served in

Mr. Goodill and his staff comes here from Rochester, Pa., where they previously had their headquarters. This district, embracing Lawrence, Butler, Beaver, Washington and Greene counties, is one of 11 such divisions in the state. Cities within the district possessing PSES (Continued on Page Two)

Treason Trial Set For August

BOSTON, July 1.—(INS)—Authorities at the federal building disclosed today that the treason trial of Robert H. Best, 56, of South Carolina, is set for September.

Best was brought to the United States from Germany by Douglas Chandler, 58-year-old expatriate American newsman, to face treason charges. Chandler already has been tried and found guilty.

Judge Francis J. W. Ford deferred sentencing of Chandler to allow defense counsel to file a motion for a new trial in the first of several steps which may see Chandler's conviction go to the supreme court for final decision.

EXPLAIN PLANE CRASH

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., July 1.—(INS)—Police today said they believed engine trouble caused a small private airplane to crash near State College in which the pilot, Edwin Kibler, of Cleveland, was killed.

Witnesses said the pilot had circled low over the area Monday, apparently seeking a landing field.

(BULLETIN)

SHREVEPORT, La., July 1.—(INS)—A crash crew from Barksdale Field was dispatched to an area 15 miles east of Shreveport today when a report was received that a B-17 bomber had crashed and burned with 10 persons aboard. There were no details immediately.

Convention Will Open Wednesday

Delegates From Throughout
State Arriving For Sons
Of Italy Sessions

GOVERNOR DUFF SENDS GREETINGS

Delegates from 375 lodges and friends of the Sons of Italy from every corner of Pennsylvania began pouring into New Castle early today. Hotels were practically filled by early afternoon, and tourists homes and private homes were opened to accommodate the crowd.

The convention of the Pennsylvania Sons of Italy opens Wednesday July 2 and continues through July 6. Headquarters of the convention are the Castleton Hotel, business sessions will be held in the Cathedral. The lodge home of the Trionfo Italiano Lodge, the New Castle unit, has been redecorated, the property has been walled in with canvas and myriads of lights installed. The entire area both indoors and outdoors is to be given over to the comfort and entertainment of the delegates and guests.

Grand Secretary Arrives
Ernest L. Biagi, grand secretary for the state organization arrived in New Castle Monday, bringing with him greetings from Governor James H. Duff. Greeting the convention, Governor Duff had the following to say:

It is a pleasure to send greetings to the Order Sons of Italy in America, Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, on the occasion of its nineteenth Grand Convention in New Castle, from July 2nd through July 6th.

In this Commonwealth many thousands of citizens of Italian birth or ancestry are demonstrating their devotion to the (Continued on Page Two)

More Shipyard Workers Strike

NEW YORK, July 1.—(INS)—Shipyard workers in major Atlantic and gulf port yards were out on strike today demanding a 13 cents an hour raise in pay.

The men started walking off their jobs at 12:01 a. m. on orders from the CIO industrial union of marine and shipbuilding workers. An estimated 95,000 workers were on strike, including 40,000 who walked out five days ago against nine Bethlehem Steel company yards on the east coast.

Union leaders said 4,000 men were on strike at the U. S. Steel's Federal Shipbuilding & Drydock at Kearny, N. J., and another 1,500 men at the Sullivan Drydock & Repair yards in Brooklyn.

Todd shipyards are not affected by the strike orders as their contract with the union extends until July 23.

Bicycle License Law Effective August 1

Bicycles in New Castle must be registered and bear a license plate, effective August 1, according to an ordinance adopted recently by city council.

According to the city, law, every owner or operator shall make application for the registration on a form to be provided by police. The registration shall be serially numbered.

After the bicycle has been registered, there shall be attached to the rear of the bicycle an identification and license tag or plate. The owner or operator shall also be provided with a registration card. A charge of 50 cents shall be made, which shall include the cost of the tag or plate. If lost, a charge of 25 cents will be made for another.

Record To Be Kept

Strike Water At 25 Feet Near Hotel

Only half a day's drilling was required yesterday before a well drilling machine struck water on the west sidewalk of South Mercer street, alongside the Leslie hotel. Water was struck at a depth of 25 feet, it was reported. The well was drilled to procure water for an air conditioning system for part of the hotel.

Kiwanis Club To Pay Tribute To Tom Johnson

New Partner In Ownership Of Pittsburgh Pirates Will Be Guest At Dinner

OFFICIALS AND STARS ALSO COMING

New Castle Kiwanis club will pay tribute to Tom Johnson, native son, who is one of the owners of the Pittsburgh baseball club, and its secretary, when he will be the guest of honor at a testimonial dinner in The Cathedral, Thursday evening, July 24, at 6 o'clock.

Accompanying him will be Roy Hamey, general manager of the Pirates, Billy Herman, playing manager; Honus Wagner, Ralph Kiner, one of the National League's home run kings, Hank Greenberg, Frank Gustine, and last but not least, Roy Rowland.

New Rotary Head Assumes Office

L. C. Dayton Takes Over Gavel As President Of
New Castle Rotary Club

FERRIS GIVES HIS FAREWELL ADDRESS

L. C. Dayton, newly elected president of the New Castle Rotary Club, took over the gavel for the coming year at the noon luncheon meeting in The Castleton, Monday, which was turned over to him by Carleton J. Ferris, the retiring president.

Mr. Dayton announced the chairman of the various committees, and announced that he would give the names of other committees later.

Before turning the gavel over to Mr. Dayton, retiring president Ferris gave his farewell address, thanking the membership for their cooperation in making the past year a successful one.

In addition to President Dayton, the other officers who will serve the club for the coming year are: vice president, Jack Huston; secretary, Carl Paisley; treasurer, F. L. Orth; directors, J. Glenn Berry, Ralph Peterson, Carleton J. Ferris, and Forbes Burdette.

This City Has Pension System

Legislation signed by Governor James H. Duff, requiring all Third Class cities in Pennsylvania to set up pensions for firemen will have no effect here, because firemen have enjoyed a pension system for years.

Burdette Is Promoted; Successor Is Named

FORBES W. BURDETTE

Forbes W. Burdette of New Castle has been appointed manager of The Manufacturers Light and Heat Co., distribution district No. 5 and will make his headquarters at 119 Mill-bridge street, Pittsburgh.

In announcing this appointment today, Irving K. Peck, vice-president and general manager said that Mr. Burdette was taking over the responsibilities formerly assigned to George A. Walther, and from which Mr. Walther requested relief because of ill health.

The new district manager Mr. Burdette, was born in New Straitsville, O., and his early business ex-

The girl admitted to the James Memorial hospital gave the name of Miss Fatima Adamancyk, 1210 Randolph street. Her injuries were said to be mild and she entered the institution for a check-up.

Nearly 100 Are Hurt In Wreck

VALPARAISO, Ind., July 1.—(INS)—The toll of injured stood at nearly 100 today in the derailment of the Columbian No. 26 of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad at an open switch at nearby Alida.

The flyer, bound from Chicago to Washington, was speeding at more than 75 miles an hour last night when it struck the switch located at the tower station where the Monon road crosses the B. & O.

State police at the Dunes State Park station in Chesterton, Ind., reported that at least 40 of the injured were stretchers cases.

Several serious conditions but no deaths were announced at hospitals where the injured were taken in Valparaiso, Ind. Seven cars of the diesel-powered train jumped the track and plowed up the right-of-way. State police said that the steel construction of the coaches saved many from possible death.

Engineer E. L. Traxler and Conductor J. R. Miller, both of Garrett, Ind., escaped injury.

Soft Coal Wage Contract Move Expected Soon

Lewis Remains Silent—Schwellenbach Also Delays Any Action

MINES ARE TURNED BACK TO OWNERS

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Soft coal operators assembled in Washington today to chart their course in negotiations with John L. Lewis for a new mine wage contract.

The operators' camp was thrown into a state of confusion by weekend reports that U. S. Steel and Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co., world's largest commercial producer, had agreed to grant Lewis' full wage-hour demands.

Western operators stated flatly that they were not committed to such an offer which would amount to a wage increase of 35 cents an hour for 400,000 bituminous miners. Charles O'Neill, chief spokesman for Northern Appalachian companies, declined to say whether he had agreed to the proposal.

Reported Secret Meeting
The offer reportedly was extended to Lewis at a secret meeting attended by Benjamin Fairless, president of U. S. Steel; Harry Moses, head of U. S. Steel's coal subsidiaries; George Humphrey, chairman of Pittsburgh Consolidation, and O'Neill.

Humphrey returned to Washington yesterday and spent the day in consultation with U. S. Steel representatives. He could not be reached for comment on the coal wage situation.

One authoritative source denied that the offer ever had been made. Other sources insisted that it had (Continued on Page Two)

Governor Signs Bill Banning Utility Strikes

HARRISBURG, July 1.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff today signed into law measures banning utility strikes and lockouts and prohibiting picketing of struck plants by non-employees.

Both measures were violently opposed by labor groups which had pleaded for Duff's veto. They were part of Duff's four-point industrial peace program designed to forestall strikes and maintain high industrial production.

Sponsored by Sen. A. Evans Kephart (R) Philadelphia, the entire utility strike measure provided for compulsory arbitration of disputes. The measure applied to electric, water, gas and heat utilities.

The other measure was introduced by Rep. Warner M. Deput (R) Pike, to avert strike in labor disputes.

EXECUTION DATE

HARRISBURG, July 1.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff today fixed September 22 for the electrocution of Mike Bubna, alias James McFadden of Erie, convicted of first degree murder in the shooting of Robert Fischer March 4, 1946.

Bubna's case was carried to the supreme court, which upheld the trial court May 26.

Arthur Mometer

I didn't know him forty years ago, but today marks the propitious date when the course of his life was entirely changed and the firm, kindly hand of Fate reached out and grabbed him and gave him a job, not much of a job, it would seem, but the lad had visions and wanted to work, and ahead of him stretched a dream. He would be the boss on some future day, and he's been that, a good one, too, so his men inform me, and they should know, and as the years rolled through he always had time to help someone else. I'm glad folks like him are alive. So congratulations, old friend of mine—the weather is eighty-five.

President Truman Will Sign Measure

Commission to Draft Plan For Streamlining Executive Branch Of Government Proposed

WASHINGTON, July 1.—(INS)—President Truman assured congressional leaders today that he will sign the Lodge-Brown bill, creating a 12-man nonpartisan commission to draft a plan for streamlining the executive branch of the government.

The bill passed both House and Senate last week by unanimous votes.

Its authors, Sen. Lodge (R) Mass., and Rep. Brown (R) Ohio, hope that some of the nation's outstanding businessmen and government experts will serve upon the commission. Their purpose is to eliminate all waste and duplication from the executive branch in a drive to slash the $30,000,000,000 cost of federal government.

Among the names being mentioned on Capitol Hill as possible commission members are former president, Herbert Hoover; Jesse Jones, Bernard Baruch, Charles E. Wilson of General Electric, William M. Jeffers of the Union Pacific, and Walter S. Gifford of American Telephone and Telegraph.

Pre-Camp Training For G. S. Counselors

Girl Scout Day Camp Opens At Cascade Park On Monday Morning July 7

Counselors for the Girl Scout day camp met with the camp director, Miss Mildred Lusk, Monday at Cascade Park for a day of pre-camp training.

Sixteen unit leaders and assistants set up plans for the camp period following introduction of the camp by the director, who also stressed the objective and gave various ideas for a schedule for the two-week camping period. Democratic plans will be made by the Girl Scouts themselves with the supervision of unit leaders of the various age groups. At noon the group enjoyed a lunch in the grove.

Girl Scout camp songs and folk dancing were rehearsed. A tour of the park was made and areas designated for headquarters of each unit. Overnight for the older Scouts this year will be held at McConnell's Mills, along the Slippery Rock creek.

Registrations are in for approximately 80 day campers. More registrations will be accepted, as 100 campers can be adequately accommodated.

Day campers will meet at the Scout building at Cascade Park Monday morning, July 7, at nine o'clock. Retreat will be at three p. m.

LOCAL COLOR—RED
THE DALES, Ore.—(INS)—Local color, and odor, of the shanties of the ancient Indian fishing village at Celilo will remain for a while though the Indians still have 30 "pre-fabs" in their crates. The Indians haven't the $2,100 to buy a plot of land near the river. No special appropriation by Congress is possible until July, 1948.

Judge Eugene Alessandrini, of Philadelphia, the Grand Venerable of the Pennsylvania Sons of Italy was scheduled to arrive in New Castle late this afternoon, bringing with him a number of the state officers. The Supreme Venerable for the United States, Judge Felix Forte of Massachusetts will arrive Wednesday afternoon on Thursday.

The Italian ambassador to the United States, Honorable H. E. Albert Tarchiani will arrive Saturday morning as will Congressman Fred L. Crawford of Michigan.

The convention opens Wednesday morning with a reception and registration at ten o'clock in the Castleton Hotel. At two in the afternoon the first business session opens in the Cathedral. At 9 p. m. the convention ball will be held in the Cathedral with three bands playing a continuous program of music. To this the public is invited.

In addition to the morning and afternoon business sessions in the Cathedral there will be the following. At 1 p. m. Thursday, there will be a dinner for women only. At 6:30 p. m. there will be a band concert on the lawn of the Sons of Italy Home on South Mill street.

On Friday, July 4 at two o'clock the patriotic parade will take place, and at 10 o'clock a display of fireworks will be presented in Cascade Park.

On Saturday night the convention banquet will be held in the Cathedral. Sunday morning at 10 o'clock there will be a high mass at St. Vitus church on Maitland street and at six o'clock a buffet luncheon in the Sons of Italy home.

General Chairman B. J. Biondi was satisfied with his plans today. "Everything seems to be in order and we are ready for this convention," said he. Venerable John Di Lorenzo said, "we expect this to be the finest of the state conventions and this is the nineteenth annual one."

been proposed to Lewis. The result was widespread confusion in the ranks of the operators. Meantime, Lewis maintained silence and waited for either the industry or the government to make the next move.

Mines Returned To Owners

The 2,600 bituminous coal mines were returned to their owners yesterday after 13 months of federal control. The government-UMW wage agreement under which the miners have worked for the past year expired at the same time and the industry is now without a work contract.

The miners currently are on a ten-day vacation which ends next Tuesday. If Lewis and the operators are unable to come to terms by that date, the miners will continue idle in a full-fledged summer coal strike.

The confusion prevailed in industry circles on the wage issue spread to government quarters. Secretary of labor Schwellenbach, who had planned to call the parties into an immediate negotiating session, deferred such action until the exact status of the wage issue was made clear.

Schwellenbach was said to be reluctant to intervene if the reported offer by U. S. Steel and Pittsburgh Consolidation was bona fide. An agreement among the operators to meet Lewis' wage-hour demand would remove one of the major stumbling blocks to a private mine contract.

The UMW chief has been seeking $13.05 for an eight-hour portal-to-portal day as against $11.85 for the current nine-hour portal day. The reported offer of U. S. Steel and Pittsburgh Consolidation would meet Lewis' figure.

WORK BEING SPEEDED ON 7 ROAD PROJECTS IN CITY AND COUNTY

The Pennsylvania Department of Highways is engaged in preparing the King's Chapel road, north of the city for blacktopping. Alfred Martin, county superintendent, reports excellent progress there, with three shovels on the job getting the road bed ready for the spall.

The Kelly-Myers Company of Youngstown has three jobs in the city and county under various stages of construction. They are working on the road in Wayne township, from Wampum to Ellwood City, where they are blacktopping the road.

Atlantic Avenue Work

The Atlantic avenue work of the latter company is moving along. The road is to be widened 22 inches on each side and the entire surface is to be blacktopped. One way traffic is being maintained in spots on this road, but traffic is moving through smoothly, it is reported.

One project in the downtown section of the city, the resurfacing of South Jefferson street from the Public Square to West Long avenue, will prove very beneficial in the smoother flow of traffic. The Youngstown firm has already begun preliminary work there, raising the manhole openings and establishing drainage before the black top is laid.

South Jefferson street has received much more traffic, with the establishment of a spur route for Route 422. Many of the larger vehicles are now using the street which has become quite rough in places.

Another project involves construction of the road leading from New Wilmington, north, connecting the boro with Route 18. Work is progressing on this road also.

The Plank road project has been completed by the local highway department and a smooth road exists north west of the city. The local department expects to have its cul-de-sac project completed by the fourth of July.

to 900 persons, those expecting to attend should make arrangements to get their tickets early. Postmaster William R. Hanna, who is general chairman warns.

Tickets are now on sale at Peralman's, Eckerd's, Kerr's Jewelry Store, Fazzone Barber Shop, Sporting Goods Store in the uptown district; Alex Samuels on the South Side; Mahoning Pharmacy, in the Seventh Ward; Zaremba's Pharmacy on the east side; and Carme's Place on West Washington street.

It is planned to place tickets on sale in the outlying towns, and the places where they can be obtained will be announced in the near future.

offices include Butler, Rochester, Ambridge, Charleroi, Washington, Waynesburg and New Castle.

"It was felt that a more satisfactory job could be done if the district headquarters was moved to New Castle, the largest city in the area," Mr. Goodill explained.

"From this city we feel we shall be better equipped to handle the necessary administration necessary for the function of the employment service. Besides our supervisory work we will do all in our power to assist the local office under the management of George Gettings and concentrate on job development in the New Castle area."

The manager wished to inform the public that his staff will occupy rooms 213, 214, 215 and 216 of the L. S. & T. Co. building and will be open starting today.

WILL THIS HELP THE COUNTRY?

We can't understand, when merchandise of all kinds is scarce and hard to get, and for the last five or six years, with the war, turmoil and strikes, no manufacturer has been keeping up to the demand, and at the present time, prospects of more closing down of mines and mills and so forth, and still hundreds of manufacturers deciding that they and their force must have a vacation, close their plants up for from one week to three weeks, regardless of the position it places the retailers in, who are trying to keep business in this country going.

Won't Americans ever learn to work again, or is all they are thinking about, the short hours and vacations?

JANE BROWN WEDS

HAROLD E. BOOK

June 28, the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Brown, of Harlansburg, was chosen as her wedding date by their daughter, Miss Jane Brown, when on Saturday she was married to Harold E. Book, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Book, of Slippery Rock. An improvised altar embellished with an arrangement of palms, ferns and white delphinium formed the setting for the service at the bride's home when Rev. R. P. MacDonald, of New Wilmington officiated. He was assisted by Dr. M. G. Munni, of Plain Grove. Presiding the ceremony Mrs. Delbert Eakin played a program of nuptial selections and accompanied Dr. Gerald H. Fouse, of Zelienople, who sang "Oh, Promise Me", "Because" and "Always".

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organdy with fitted bodice and sheer yolk with embroidered eyelet ruffling in the bodice effect. Her fingertip veil fell from a halo of shirred eyelet. She carried a bouquet of white roses and delphinium and ivy.

Mrs. Grace Fouse, of Zelienople, who served her sister as matron of honor, wore a gown of white dotted organdy and carried a cascade of red roses. Miss Grace Book, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid wore white organdy dotted with blue and carried a cascade of yellow roses. Their gowns were fashioned off-the-shoulder and they wore mitts and half hats of shirred organdy. Patty and Judy Wimer and Sally and Jane Brown, nieces of the bride and groom, were flower girls and wore identical white dotted organdy dresses with eyelet trim and carried small colonial bouquets.

Paul Book served his brother as best man with Clarence R. Book and Tom Brown as ushers.

A reception for 75 guests followed the ceremony at which time Mrs. C. X. Pollock and son, Harold, played several musical selections. Aides at the reception were Laura Brown, Luella Peebles, Edna Pontius and Dorothy Hohman.

Mr. and Mrs. Book departed for a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination. The bride is a graduate of Harlansburg high school and is employed in the office of Dr. J. P. Campbell. The groom is in business with his brother.

ELEANOR REYNOLDS' WEDDING PLANS TOLD

Mrs. William R. Reynolds of 1410 Delaware avenue entertained at a pre-nuptial card party for her daughter, Miss Eleanor Reynolds, on a recent evening to announce the wedding date chosen by the bride-elect for her wedding. It will take place July 12.

Four tables of cards were in play during the evening with prizes going to Mrs. Wilbur Chapman and Mrs. Michael Schmidt.

Place favors at the table later were tagged with a variety of dates and for having the winning date—July 12—a special prize was awarded to Mrs. Jacob Stetch of Ellwood City.

Mrs. Rose Kirkwood and Mrs. Robert Reynolds were the hostesses.

The bride-elect received a number of lovely gifts.

The wedding will take place at an open church ceremony in the First U. P. church at 7:30 o'clock in the evening with Dr. S. E. Irvine to officiate.

Miss Reynolds has asked Miss Barbara Marous to be her maid of honor and her fiancé, Wilfred Graft, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cameron of 308 Fairmount avenue, will have Robert Reynolds, brother of the bride, as best man, and Earl Sadlon and Earl Hammond as ushers.

JULY BRIDE FETED AT SHOWER PARTY

Miss Ida Ruth Hoover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hoover, East New Castle, and bride elect of July, was feted at a lovely shower party, recently held at the home of Mrs. Robert Dean, East New Castle.

Employees of the Bell Telephone company were in attendance, and the evening was enjoyed with various games and contests.

At an appropriate hour, a buffet lunch was served by the hostess and co-hostess, Shirley Dean. A huge cake bearing the name "Ida and Bill, July 11," centered the table.

The honoree was the recipient of a lovely gift.

Miss Hoover will become the bride of William Wayne Nagle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nagle, Ellwood road, on Friday, July 11.

COUNTRY CLUB TO HAVE LADIES DAY

Ladies days at New Castle Country Club on Thursdays during the summer months have been planned to interest not only those who play golf and bridge but all women members.

First of the "Every Member Our" ladies day will be Thursday, July 3, and a large attendance is looked for.

In the morning there will be golf with 9 a. m. the tee off time. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock and in the afternoon there will be tables of contract for those desiring to play cards.

On June 26 members visited Sharon and Venango country clubs as guests.

Section One Picnic Thursday. Section One of the First Christian church will meet for a tureen picnic in the home of Mrs. Charles H. Young, East Wallace avenue, on Thursday evening at six o'clock.

MURPHY-GUINAUGH CHURCH NUPTIALS

St. Mary's church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Margaret Catherine Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilary Murphy of 17 South Greenwood avenue, and Kevin Martin Guinaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Guinaugh of 204 Smithfield street, on Saturday morning, June 28, when in the presence of friends and relatives vows were exchanged at 10 o'clock with Rev. Francis McCarter officiating. Roses and larkspur decorated the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white satin with a yoke of marquisette above the fitted lace bodice and full skirt ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil of French silk tulle fell from a halo of orange blossoms, and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses and larkspur.

Miss Honora Cunningham as her only attendant, wore a peach tulle and net gown with matching sweetheart hat of the same material and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and blue larkspur.

Walter Henson served the groom as best man.

Following a congratulatory period in the church vestibule, a wedding breakfast was served at a local tearoom for members of the immediate families.

Later there was a reception in the home of the bride's parents for 150 guests. Aides were Mrs. Edward L. Hannon, Mrs. John Davis, Miss Kathleen Carlin and Mrs. Helen Shaner.

The newlyweds left on a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, and on their return will be at home at 711 East Reynolds street.

Mrs. Guinaugh is a graduate of New Castle high school. Mr. Guinaugh of Union high school. He is employed at the Johnson Bronze company.

V. F. W. DISTRICT AUXILIARY ELECTS

District No. 25 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars met in V. F. W. Post No. 315 rooms Sunday afternoon at 1:30. District President Mrs. Daisy Haddock, of Ellwood City, presided.

Department president Mrs. Evelyn Woods was escorted into the room with colors and given the salute of welcome. Eighty-two members from 11 auxiliaries of the district were present.

Election of district officers resulted as follows: president, Mrs. Daisy Haddock, of No. 252 auxiliary; senior vice president, Miss Loretta Carney, of No. 249 auxiliary; junior vice president, Mrs. Lena Drogue, of No. 48 auxiliary; treasurer, Mrs. Edith Hart, of No. 128; chaplain, Mrs. Ann Hewar, of No. 463; conductress, Mrs. Lillian Davis, of No. 522; assistant conductress, Mrs. Carrie Shaffer, of No. 315; guard, Mrs. Muriel Keith, of No. 128; assistant guard, Mrs. Irene Kocher, of No. 865.

Memorial services for all deceased members were conducted.

PIZOR-CONNER WEDDING QUIET

In Westfield Presbyterian church on Friday evening, June 27, at 6 o'clock, Miss Maxine Pizor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Pizor, of 404 Martin street, and Jack Conner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Conner, of Bessemer, were united in marriage with Rev. John M. Fife officiating.

The bride wore a tropical weight suit of white wool accented by green accessories and a corsage of pink and yellow roses. As her only attendant she had her twin sister, Miss Jean Pizor, who wore a pink summer weight suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Frank Tomasello was best man for the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Conner left immediately from the church on a motor trip to Canada and will be at home after July 6 in their newly furnished apartment at 23 East North street.

Mrs. Conner is employed in the office of the Community Loan Company and Mr. Conner at the Bessemer Limestone and Cement Company.

COUSINS GUESTS AT REUNION PICNIC

For their houseguest, Mrs. Lola Griffin of Pomona, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wigton of Walpole entertained at a basket picnic Saturday evening. Places were set for 40 at tables on the lawn. Guests were cousins and their families who reside in this vicinity.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elson Jeffers and daughter Susan Kay of Rousseville and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wigton and family of Ellwood City.

THESE ARE CHEERFUL FIGURES

It is to be hoped that every citizen of New Castle read the article in yesterday's News concerning the retail sales totals of 1946. The article, under a New York date line pointed out that in 1946 the retail sales here were $48,441,000, an increase of approximately $13,000,000 over 1945. The average for New Castle is five per cent higher than the average community of similar size in the United States.

The total is a truly amazing one. They mean that New Castle is a good business city. They mean that New Castle people had money to spend and they spent it in their home city, largely. They also seem to mean that the surrounding countryside believes New Castle is a good city in which to shop.

Probably a number of reasons enter into this tremendous retail sales volume. New Castle being the center of Lawrence County naturally attracts outside buyers. New Castle is almost the exact center of the distance between New York and Chicago, which attracts travelers to New Castle as an overnight stop.

But in the last analysis we are led to the conclusion that New Castle merchants are alive to their responsibilities, they are good merchandisers and the sales totals prove it.

These are cheerful figures. Nearly fifty million dollars spent in retail sales in New Castle in a twelve month period. You might keep the totals in mind to use in answering critics who sometimes endeavor to point out our defects.

We can't help repeating a line that has been a part of our philosophy for many years. New Castle is a good city. A good city in which to live and work, and from the retail totals shown people know it is a good city in which to shop.

"DEEP WATER OILMEN"

The search for oil goes on—in strange places and with the use of new techniques which would have seemed fantastic a very few years ago.

The bottom of the ocean is now being explored, off the shores of Texas and Louisiana, where "deep water oilmen" are seeking the outlines of salt domes—buried mountains of salt that were pushed up from deep in the earth ages ago and, in the process upheaved overlying rocks which created natural traps for oil.

Deep water prospecting for oil is a postwar phenomenon. The prospectors' equipment includes retired navy sub-chasers, shrimp trawlers, converted army air-sea rescue boats, and a 77-foot yacht. Their instruments include gravity meters, seismographs, and radar. The gravity meter measures variations in gravity caused by changes in the underwater rock structure. The seismograph records on paper the time it takes shock waves from an explosive charge to hit rock layers below and bounce back to the surface, thus indicating the depths of various rock formations and providing pictures of oil traps if any are present. Radar has proven invaluable in fixing a boat's position, particularly in bad weather.

The information so far gained indicates that the prodigious oil fields of the Louisiana-Texas Gulf Coast may extend far out under the sea, and a practical test is soon to be made in deep-water drilling. This is simply one part of the oil industry's program to completely chart our oil resources—and to put them to work for the benefit of this country and the world as rapidly as possible.

"PREXY" EISENHOWER

General Eisenhower has accepted Columbia University's offer to become its president, stipulating that he will not leave his present post until next year, and that his departure even then is to be subject to approval of the President and the Secretary of War.

The Army loses a brilliant administrator, but fortunately it has another one in Gen. Omar Bradley, who is prominently mentioned to fill the chief of staff post. General Bradley, commander of the American ground forces in the European campaign, has been Veterans' Administrator since 1945. In the event he will become chief of staff, it will be difficult to find a man of equal caliber to handle the complex problems of the veterans.

General Eisenhower some months ago expressed the earnest wish to end his long and brilliant Army career and go into the field of nonpolitical public service. The presidency of Columbia provides an answer to this wish. He will be turning his talents to a new field and his fellow countrymen wish him well.

June 21 was the longest day of the year—not counting the one just before vacation starts.

According to Farley, the "My Friends!" salutation was all-inclusive only when it was released over the air waves.

Freedom doesn't require tolerating isms that destroy freedom. Permitting an enemy to poison you is proof of imbecility, not tolerance.

When an elevator is crowded, a man should step out quickly, in his turn. This is more considerate and less awkward than to block those behind him to let a lady go first.

UNRRA Ceases To Function In World

WASHINGTON, July 1—The first practical, functioning agency of the United Nations has come to the end of its existence. Buffeted, battle-scarred beset by the fierce pulls of national rivalry, the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration is now a finished chapter in the dubious book of world co-operation.

In weary, hungry Europe, the UNRRA offices are closing. They are closing not because the job is done, but because fear and distrust prevented a working partnership in this elementary task.

The big question mark is what to fill the gap with from here on out. It is a hopeful portent that the foreign ministers of Britain, Russia and France are meeting in Paris to try to agree on a plan for European reconstruction that would eventually have the backing of American aid.

But, even if this succeeds, the need for immediate day-by-day relief remains. Eight hundred thousand refugees are still in UNRRA camps. They are the victims of Europe's anarchy, men and women who refuse to go home to servitude or persecution through torture and death as alternatives.

IRO Meeting Opposition
An effort is being made to form a new international relief organization to take care of this part of the UNRRA job. But the effort is meeting serious obstacles. IRO is still a hopeful chart that may or may not come into being.

The United States loaned Arthur Altmeyer, chairman of the Social Security Board, to help set up the new organization. Altmeyer went to Switzerland expecting to stay a few weeks. He has been in Geneva four months, wrestling with the problem until he is on the verge of a breakdown, according to reports here.

Congress has just authorized U. S. participation in IRO. It will be well into July before money is appropriated to cover our share of the costs. IRO is committed to pay British and American occupation authorities for maintaining the refugee camps in the two zones. If this is enforced, there will not be enough out of IRO's $112,000,000 budget to last through the current year.

Refugees in Uncertain State
That leaves the refugees in a pretty uncertain state. They will probably be fed. But it doesn't take much imagination to think what this uncertainty will mean to men and women who have lived under the long shadow of doubt for two or three or four years.

The refugees were a comparatively small part of UNRRA's job. Most of the money went for general relief. The United States will now offer relief. The administrator of the American program, Richard F. Allen, a former Red Cross official, left for Europe the other day. Congress has authorized $350,000,000, but here again no money has been made available. The State Department got an advance from the RFC of $75,000,000 in order to make a start. Similarly, no money has actually been appropriated for the Greek-Turkish program and the RFC came through with $100,000,000 on the cuff.

In the four years of its existence, UNRRA took much undeserved abuse. In instance after instance, charges that relief supplies were being used for political purposes were refuted. Yet the reputation rarely caught up with the noisy accusation.

With understandable pride, Maj. Gen. Lovell W. Rooks pointed out in a final statement as director of UNRRA that it had distributed nearly $3 billion of supplies, about three times the value of relief provided after World War I. This went to 17 different countries. Inevitably in the wake of the most destructive war in history, there were difficulties, delay and waste.

UNRRA held off major epidemics of the kind of diseases ordinarily rampant after wars. It never had sufficient resources to prevent the spread of such plagues as tuberculosis, which is now widespread.

A year ago the United States signalled the end of UNRRA. This was done because of the belief that congress would not again appropriate money for an international relief organization. This was correct. But congress has been amazingly slow about appropriating money for any kind of relief. We shall have reason to regret the untimely end of the only functioning U. N. organization which has now become history.

They Say

WASHINGTON—President Truman: "The support of desperate populations of battle-ravaged countries must be won for the free way of life. We must have them as our Allies in our continuing struggle for the peaceful solution of the world's problems."

CHICAGO—Robert M. Hutchins, chancellor of the University of Chicago: "American science and technology have produced a stockpile of new and improved bombs (atomic) large enough, according to usually conservative sources, to destroy every large city on earth."

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

I don't know when a few words have impressed me so much as those spoken before the Baruch Committee of Physical Medicine by Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, chancellor of Stanford University, when he delivered his annual report to Mr. Baruch, who established the committee in 1944 with a grant of $1,250,000.

Thanks to the research work of the committee and proper treatment given as a result of its work, 3,000 paraplegic war veterans who can move about only in wheelchairs or on crutches are now living fairly normal lives.

In explaining the work, Dr. Wilbur remarked: "Our whole procedure is based on 'what has a man left?' not on 'what has he lost?'"

Those are wonderful words and may well serve as everyone's guide through life.

What have you left? That may well determine your entire outlook on life and help you over the many hurdles that you will never be able to surmount if you dwell too much on what you have lost.

There is hardly a day that I don't receive letters from people whose whole existence seems to be spoiled by constant thinking of their losses. It may be a husband or a wife. It may be health. It may be money. That's all they seem to think of. Nothing but their loss seems to matter.

It is easy enough to preach, of course. I know that. It is difficult to take losses lightly, particularly when something that is very dear has been lost.

But isn't life a continuity of losses? Isn't every new day just a day nearer to the grave? So, we must expect losses. We must realize that life is temporary and that the only thing that matters is what is left.

Without hope life isn't worth living. And hope can exist only when the eyes and soul look ahead and not behind.

Yesterday is gone, irrevocably gone. Nothing that has happened can ever be undone.

What if those maimed war veterans said to themselves, "I am a cripple. What's the use...I'll just give up."

By science, by patience, by the correction of their outlook on life they have been made whole human beings again.

Yes, even with physical handicaps and with painful losses, you can be a whole human being if you will teach yourself and force yourself to think of what is left, and not of what is gone.

It's difficult, I know. But life itself is difficult. You

From Me To You

By MESEKALL

This sure is baseball weather... nice warm days and very comfortable evenings. That, until this year (warm evenings) haven't meant much... but now this summer, warm and comfortable evenings mean much... that anyone can spend a very enjoyable time watching some mighty hot baseball at Flaherty field... If there is any project in New Castle that ought to be supported... then it surely is the night baseball field. For many a year hundreds of New Castle folks have been asking why can't there be night baseball in town... now we have, thanks to the employees of the J-B. So have fun children, have fun.

Postmaster William Hanna stopped in yesterday and inquired more concerning the mail box idea that we talked about one day last week. In case you are reading this, Walter Kiker, would you mind stopping in and give the exact location of the mail box that you examined while on your tour. The local postmaster thinks maybe something can be done if he can contact the postmaster that now sports such a different mail receptacle.

This week will be a busy one in town... the lads of the booming organization, Sons of Italy, will gather for a large reunion... or maybe they prefer to call it a convention... both words work... for there will be many here who haven't seen each other for a year... so in words, it's a reunion within a convention. We take this opportunity to welcome all visitors to our community and wish them a very happy time... to the local men who have worked so hard during the past months in preparing for this meeting we say... thanks for inviting the members of Sons of Italy to the community... Everyone is proud of New Castle and we like to have visitors see our town and enjoy the hospitality of our citizens. May this convention be the greatest convention the organization has every held.

Remember... it's a word of warning to all those who wish to cool off... don't swim in unguarded places... there are pools throughout the county that maintain lifeguards... be sure one is on duty when you enter the water.

The World and the Mud Puddles

WE "VIEW WITH ALARM"

The diplomats of the United States and Great Britain "view with alarm" (that is what they used to say anyway) the actions of the Soviet "Republics." That is about all the diplomats can do in the present crisis.

It seems that Russia is determined to convert all of Europe, with the exception of Spain, to the Russian brand of Communism and they tried hard enough to bluff the members of the United Nations to expel Spain; at least, to give Spain the absent treatment—quit trading with her. Now what are Great Britain and the United States going to do about all of this?

I would make it emphatic that we loan no more money to Russia or to any of her satellites; that we in turn quit trading with Russia and all her satellites and that we would likewise end the pay to those citizens who allege unemployment.

Trieste Agreement Factor
Greece wants to know whether any of the money appropriated for her use is subject to expenditure for military purposes, for the forces recruited, evidently, in Yugoslavia and Bulgaria are bringing pressure to bear on Greece. It is one way that Stalin and Company are using their satellites to gain access to the Mediterranean. It probably will not be long until the Yugoslavian forces in and about Trieste will make mock of the agreement to maintain Trieste as an international port.

It is a great game that Russia is playing in Europe and it is, about time that we show our teeth. Russia says that she has the atomic bomb. All right, let's find out now whether she has or not and just try dropping one of our bombs on the Kremlin. Just warn Russia that we will do that thing if she doesn't pull in her horns. We might as well find out now just how good war is. The time is past to try peace measures with such an obstreperous bunch as are centered in Moscow.

EXCUSE ME OR PARDON ME

Question: Please answer the following questions: (1) When passing in front of a person, which should I say "Excuse me" or "Pardon me"? (2) Should a young person answer an older person with "yes sir" and "yes, ma'am"? (3) Is a biscuit broken or cut?

Answer: (1) Either "excuse me" or "I beg your pardon." (2) "Yes" and "no" followed by the person's name. Boys say "sir"; girls do not. "Ma'am" is now rarely used except in Southern United States. (3) Broken.

Question: When a man announces himself over the telephone, should he say "this is Mr. Smith" or "this is John Smith"?

Answer: If he is talking with someone who calls him "John," naturally he would say: "This is John Smith." To business associates with whom he is not so familiar, he should call himself "Mr. Smith." "John Smith" omitting the "Mr." except when he registers with his wife in which case the signature should be "Mr. and Mrs. John Smith"; never "John Smith and wife."

Question: When should salad be served at dinner? On which side of the large dinner plate should it be put?

Answer: Salad may be served along with the dinner if it is informal or just following the main course. If it is served along with it, no salad fork is necessary. If served after the main course, a salad fork is a "must." The salad plate should be placed to the left of the dinner plate.

Question: I am going to give a dinner-dance at my husband's club. Is it our duty as host and hostess to sit out dances if some of our guests do not dance?

Answer: If there is one non-dancer among your guests, someone should remain at the table with him or her while the others are dancing. It would be rude for everyone to leave a guest, especially a woman, entirely alone. If there are two or more non-dancers, they may periodically be left alone, although either you or your husband should occasionally "sit out" a dance with them.

THE MIND

Will a way man ever find How to probe the human mind? How to read behind the eyes? What of good or evil lies? How to know if all we say, All we do, from day to day, Will a shadow cast upon Those to follow later on?

To know truly right from wrong Seems to take us far too long. Where unwittingly we fail May begin some tragic tale Of a mind that goes astray In a strangely cruel way. To the heart's sick questioning why? None the answer to supply.

Are both past and present one? Do the living carry on In their heritage the seed Of some dead ancestor's deed? Is it possible to find How to read the youthful mind? How to fashion it and guide, Or is that to us denied? (Copyright, 1947, Edgar A. Guest)

Co-operation Is Called For

WASHINGTON, July 1.—One rather basic trouble with this country, inseparable from our political system, is the difficulty in arousing public sentiment on matters or measures concerning which there really is but one side. On controversial issues sentiment is stirred through the techniques of the organized special interest groups and parties. But on non-controversial issues there is no mechanism for doing this.

THAT is the reason for the frequent failure, through inertia, of concededly meritorious proposals. The people are just not interested enough to care. This is partly why economy is so hard to achieve while waste is practically effortless. At this time the two most important bills that remain to be dealt with by this Congress are those pertaining to universal military training and Army-Navy unification. There is extraordinary little dispute about the merits of these proposals. Most informed persons are strongly for them. They are non-political, and not much of a fight will be made against them.

NEVERTHELESS, there will be considered debate and tiresome hearings in both House and Senate, at which ground that has been thoroughly covered time and again will be gone over. Both bills ought to pass. The Army-Navy merger, at the moment, has a better chance than the universal military training proposal. However, the sponsors of both are worried because of the lack of public sentiment. This would not make so much difference if there were more time, but adjournment is less than five weeks off and the danger is that one or both proposals will be caught in the inevitable last-minute legislative crush and allowed once more to die on the vine.

If there were a way to dramatize these bills or stage a really reverberating debate, there would be less concern. As things are, they have strong official support but no vibrant public sentiment behind them. The danger is that with a day fixed for adjournment a jam easily could develop in which they will be sacrificed to the personal pressure behind far less important measures. This would be very unfortunate.

UNDER such circumstances it would seem sensible, logical and inevitable for the Democratic and Republican leaders to confer and co-operate in thrusting aside obstacles to their speedy passage. It is sensible and logical but, unhappily, not inevitable. As the session has progressed, the partisan bitterness so conspicuously absent at the beginning has made its appearance. There is less and less disposition to confer and co-operate among the leaders on both sides. This is natural enough. The Democrats have become irritated over the partisan refusal of the Republicans, for purely partisan reasons, to confirm first-class Truman appointments—such, for example, as that of Mr. Philip B. Perlman for solicitor general—to which custom has given the President the right. And by other things.

ON the other hand, the Republicans deeply resent the character of Administration resistance to their economy program and the somewhat violent presidential vetoes of the labor and tax bills. Nor have the bitter exchanges between President Truman and Senator Taft improved the prospect for co-operation on nonpartisan matters. In brief, the whole idea, promulgated by both sides last January, that the Democratic President and the Republican Congress would co-operate on all non-political measures clearly in the national interest seems shot to pieces on everything save foreign affairs. This is why there is uncertainty about the passage of these measures, which the leaders in both parties favor in principle, which certainly are nonpolitical and the national need for which few dispute.

WHAT ought to exist, of course, is a militant public sentiment that would compel co-operation upon the part of the leaders. But there is no such public sentiment. Actually, there is neither full public understanding nor genuine interest. How to get these things is a problem for which no leader has an answer. The bills should go through despite their absence—and it looks now as though they might. But the danger is there—particularly for the universal military training proposal—and it ought not to be ignored.

President Signs Act To Vitalize Army Enlistment

WASHINGTON, July 1.—(INS)—President Truman Monday signed legislation designed to stimulate volunteer enlistments in the regular army.

The existing voluntary recruitment act would have expired at midnight, depriving the army of the added inducements it now offers to volunteers such as retirement pay, promotion, a professional career, etc. The army would also have been forced to revert to its old statutory strength of 380,000.

In urging enactment of the bill, the house armed services committee termed the legislation "urgent" and emphasized that enlistments are "already far below regular army needs".

The measure authorizes 17-year-olds to enlist in the National Guards. In addition, the secretary of war is empowered to accept original enlistments for two, three, four, five or six years; to accept re-enlistments for three, four, five or six years and to reenlist non-commissioned officers of the first three grades for unspecified periods of time on a career basis.

Launch Survey Into Extension Of Superhighway

HARRISBURG, July 1.—(INS)—Pennsylvania Turnpike commissioners Monday launched a personal survey of possible routes for the proposed extension to Philadelphia of the $70,000,000 Harrisburg-Pittsburgh super-highway.

Headed by Chairman T. J. Evans, of Coal Dale, the commissioners will discuss construction problems tomorrow with Mayor Bernard Samuel and the Philadelphia planning commission.

The eastward extension of the toll highway was authorized by the general assembly in 1940.

The commission expected to launch construction of the east leg within a year.

The Pennsylvania Turnpike, opened to motorists in 1940, lances across southern Pennsylvania from Irwin to Middlesex for a distance of 160 miles.

County Scouts Will Participate In July 4 Parade

In co-operation with the Sons of Italy, the Boy Scouts of Lawrence County will participate in a July 4 parade in the city.

All Scouts and leaders are requested to bring their troop and American flags and assemble at the intersection of S. Mill and Friendship streets on Independence Day. The parade is scheduled to move at 2 p. m. and the Scouts are asked to be in position prior to that time.

This announcement was made today by Thomas L. Paden, chairman of the council camping and activities committee and Thomas G. Allen, scout executive.

SHOWER GIVEN FOR MARY KATE ELLIOTT

Miss Mary Kate Elliott, of Slippery Rock R.D., was honored at a pre-nuptial shower Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Robert Bell, 338 Sixth avenue, E. tier. The guests were all former classmates at Slippery Rock high school.

Early in the evening the bride-elect was presented with an array of lovely gifts of a miscellaneous nature after which cards furnished entertainment for this group. Prizes went to Mrs. Anita Cratty, of Butler, and Mrs. Vevia Croll, of Slippery Rock.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Miss Elliott's date for her wedding, July 3, when she will be married to Lawrence Sontag, of Volant, was announced at a party given in Plaingrove by the Misses Evelyn Maxwell, Mary Shoaff and Agnes Peebles.

ST. VITUS CHURCH SCENE OF WEDDING

At a nuptial ceremony at eight o'clock in the morning on June 29 in St. Vitus church, Miss Elizabeth Elari, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Elari, of 703 East Lutton street, was married to James V. Zarilla, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Zarilla, of 212 East Madison avenue.

Rev. Nicholas DeMita officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin wedding gown with sweetheart neckline and a train, with her fingertip veil held by a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid.

Her attendants were Miss Maria Sainato, maid of honor, and the Misses Ann Lanecchia, Rose DeCola, Theresa Petrilla, and Virginia Rainey, bridesmaids, and the Misses Edith and Rose Marie Warren, junior bridesmaids. Best man was Angelo Mazzocco and Tony Borzackilo, Joe Zarilla, Rudolph Warren, and Frank Carbone ushered.

St. Margaret's hall was the scene of the wedding dinner served to the bridal party and a reception in the evening from 7:30 to midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Zarilla left on a wedding trip to points west and on their return will take up residence with the bride's parents. Both are graduates of New Castle senior high school. He is employed at the Universal Sanitary Manufacturing Company.

Degree Of Honor Meets

In the I.O.O.F. hall on a recent evening the Degree of Honor met for a social time with cards and games as the pastime. Prizes went to Mrs. Jane Sanders, Mrs. Mary Patterson, Mrs. June Fry, and Mrs. Alice Taylor. Door prize of the evening was won by Mrs. Margaret McKissick. Later delicious tureen refreshments were served.

Next meeting will be July 11.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH SCENE OF WEDDING

At a candlelight ceremony in St. Paul's Lutheran church where her grandparents were charter members 100 years ago, Miss Lenore Knobloch, of R. D. 6, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Knobloch, on Saturday, June 28, at 7 o'clock in the evening, became the bride of John Forsberg, son of David Forsberg of Oak street.

Before an embankment of bouquets of white delphinium and snapdragons against a background of palms and ferns, Rev. O. J. War-nath, S. T. M., officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Walter J. Knobloch, wore a white wool suit complemented by a navy hat and navy accessories. She carried a white Bible with a marker of white orchids and streamers. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls.

Her only attendant was Miss Jean Thompson who wore a pink suit with white accessories and carried a bouquet of pink roses and blue delphinium.

J. Walter Knobloch, nephew of the bride, served as best man. Lewis Kiser of Kalamazoo, Mich., and Loyal Kleckner were ushers.

Miss Ruth Weir at the organ played a recital of nuptial music preceding the ceremony.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wright at East Brook, brother and sister of the bride. Aides were Mrs. Walter Knobloch, Mrs. Howard McQuiston and Miss Jo Ann McQuiston.

Dispensing with a wedding trip for the present, the newlyweds have taken up residence with the groom's father at 743 Oak street. They plan to spend two weeks in New York City in September.

Mrs. Forsberg is employed at the Strouss-Hirschberg company store and Mr. Forsberg is associated in business with his father in the D. & J. Produce company.

Early History Of New Castle

EARLIEST SETTLERS

One of the earliest settlers in New Castle, and its first blacksmith. Tradition speaks of him as a "curious specimen of humanity."

His cabin was a three-pen affair with the dwelling in one end, the shop on the other, and a horse stall in the middle. History gives us to understand that, even in that day, this arrangement was somewhat odd.

The blacksmith was, or pretended to be, a Christian, but he had a habit of indulging in a little profanity now and then. Not that swearing was anything unusual in those days—especially among blacksmiths—but he was unique in one outstanding respect. He would stop in the middle of a prayer when excited, curse roundly and soundly, and then finish his prayer as if nothing serious had happened.

FARMERS . . . Your AAA Program Has Been Stopped!

Why? Because on May 28 the House of Representatives passed a bill (H. R. 3601) that cut the funds to pay for the 1947 AAA program to about half of the amount promised by Congress last year.

If you have signed up with the AAA program, this means to you that:

1. Your 1947 payments on all practices will be reduced to about half of what you were told they would be.
2. If you have received lime, fertilizer, or other conservation materials, you may be asked to pay additional cash on that material.
3. If you have not received your 1947 lime or fertilizer, it may not be delivered. All lime and fertilizer deliveries are stopped.
4. All purchase orders for building terraces, dams, etc., are stopped.
5. During the next seven months the AAA organization must be liquidated entirely. They are prohibited from planning a program for 1948 crop year.
6. The working arrangement between AAA committee, farmer, and suppliers of conservation materials and services is killed completely.

The AAA organization has always been administered by farmers. It stands to protect farm prices as well as run a good conservation program for all farmers.

It is not too late for Congress to restore this program. Your Senators will vote on this bill in a couple of weeks. They can save this program if they hear from you. Wire or write them today.

Your Senators are: Francis J. Myers and Edward Martin, United States Senate, Washington, D. C.

Wife Of College Professor Holds Hope He Is Alive

Wife Of Missing Penn State Entomologist, Thinks Husband Amnesia Victim

VERNON R. HABER
STATE COLLEGE, Pa., July 1.—(INS)—In the quiet little town of State College is a very determined woman today who does not believe her husband, a nationally known entomologist, to be dead despite his disappearance almost a month ago.

Police, baffled by the disappearance of Prof. Vernon R. Haber, on the faculty of Pennsylvania State College, have been working methodically on the case but that has not been enough for Mrs. Julia Haber.

The 59-year-old scientist dropped out of sight after being seen walking near his office on the campus June 3. She is convinced her husband is a victim of amnesia and is roaming the country or working as a farmer or butcher. A $500 reward has been offered.

She has called and written relatives all over the middle west.

She has had descriptive fliers printed by the thousand and distributed to police in every state, to 3000 sheriffs, to daily and weekly newspapers, to radio stations, to farm publications, missing persons bureaus, relatives, friends, and others.

Writes To Friends
This week she unpacked last year's gay Christmas cards and grimly addressed more fliers to friends who had greeted her and Dr. Haber from Arizona, California, Colorado, Mississippi, and many other states.

As soon as neighbors and other residents go on vacations, Mrs. Haber sees to it that they get fliers to pass on to friends and others along the way. And, with Fourth of July impending, she has redoubled her efforts with Centre countyans who are making shorter trips.

"We must do everything to get the word around," Mrs. Haber tells her friends. "I know Vern is alive. We must not only hope for his return—we must work for it."

Because Prof. Haber spent his boyhood at farming and butchering, his wife thinks he may have wandered into either type of job. She appealed to the nation's sheriffs because Prof. Haber's father was for years a sheriff and deputy.

The missing entomologist is 59 years old, but looks more like 50. He is 5 feet, 6 inches tall and weighs 135 pounds. His eyes are brown. His hair is gray and worn in a pompadour. He wears glasses and always carries a small pocket folding lens for inspecting insects.

Covered Bridge In Beaver County Will Be Soon Torn Down

BEAVER FALLS, July 1.—Another of Pennsylvania's fast disappearing covered bridges will soon be no more.

The decayed old covered bridge across Raccoon creek in Independence township has been barricaded and a bridge closed sign bars entrance to the unsafe structure. Some 422 residents of the township have signed a petition which they sent to State Highway Secretary Ray P. Smock, asking that the bridge either be torn down or replaced.

The bridge was declared unsafe in 1945 and since its closing, a number of families have had to follow a nine mile detour. Long ago, the sideboards rotted and fell into the creek with sunlight and rain both pouring in from the decaying roof.

CHECK COMBINES AS HARVEST NEARS

A last-minute check on the combine to make sure it is in working order for the approaching harvest season will save delays when the grain is ripe.

In examining their machines, combine operators should thoroughly clean all bearings, see that all belts are in good working condition, and that slip clutches are working.

Where combines have a motor mounted, the cooling system is an important item to look over, as well as all valves and the oil filter. The carburetor should be taken apart and cleaned, and adjusted if necessary. Spark plug spacings should be checked and adjusted to manufacturer's requirements. The breaker points in the magneto or distributor should be inspected for position and proper spacing. Grease in the transmission should be checked and changed if necessary.

The combine has not been used for several months and needs a tune-up. If a speed counter, or indicator, is not on hand one should be purchased.

IPPOLITO-CAMPBELL WEDDING

Miss Dorothy Ippolito, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Ippolito, of Wampum, became the bride of David Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Campbell of Chewton in a lovely wedding at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in St. Monica's church in Wampum.

The double-ring service was read by the Rev. G. Sullivan, assistant pastor. George Godosky, church organist, played appropriate nuptial tunes.

Given in marriage by her brother, Louis, the bride was charmingly attired in a white street-length frock of shantung, styled with a square neckline, a lace yoke and wide flared sleeves edged with lace. She wore white accompaniments and carried a white Bible marked with an orchid.

Miss Thelma DeTullo, of Ellwood City, was maid of honor and wore a pale yellow shantung dress with a tunic that gathered in a large bow at the back. Her accessories were white and she carried a colonial bouquet of yellow tea roses and blue iris.

Raymond Ippolito, brother of the bride, served as best man.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, with a tiered wedding cake featured in the delectable buffet lunch.

The newweds are on a wedding trip and will be at home to friends later this week in their newly furnished home on Clyde street. For travelling the bride wore a white suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride and bridegroom are both graduates of Wampum high school.

School Subsidy Controls Measure Signed By Duff

New Law Will Curb Cheating Of Some Districts To Obtain Large Subsidies

HARRISBURG, July 1.—(INS)— Gov. James H. Duff today carried out part of his long-range education program creating a tax-equalization board to determine state school subsidies on the basis of true need.

The governor signed legislation sponsored by Sen. George B. Stevenson, (R) Clinton, designed to curb cheating by some school districts to obtain large school subsidies.

It will be the duty of the three-member board, which will be appointed by the governor, to determine subsidies on the basis of market value of taxable real estate
rather than on county assessments.
A $500,000 appropriation was provided to finance the program which is being fostered by Duff in line with his policy to thrust greater school financing responsibility on local districts.

Duff has claimed some school districts were underestimating potential revenues in order to merit sizeable state allocations.

The board will be required to furnish the department of public instruction with information by July 1 of each year showing property market values in each school district. The first lists were due July 1, 1949.

Most Supply List

County commissioners were obliged to supply the board monthly with lists of property transfers and sales values while local assessing officials were required to file annual reports on assessed valuation of real estate in school districts. The first report was due June 1, 1948.

The board was directed to make annual adjustments in local market values on which to base its subsidy recommendations to the department and to investigate needs of financially distressed school districts.

Public school officials were entitled to leaves of absence with pay in cases of illness or where deaths have occurred in the family, under another bill signed by Duff. Leave was made cumulative from year to year not to exceed 20 days.

Other bills signed by Duff required the council of education to establish standards for heating and ventilating school buildings and to revise standards at least once in every five years and protected the civil service status of doctors and nurses employed by municipal corporations but conducting school health examinations.

Teacher Check-Ups

Teachers and other school employees were required to undergo complete medical and dental examinations at least once every two years under the program.

School districts will be required to transport students in rural areas lacking proper facilities within two miles of their homes or to underwrite boarding expenses up to one dollar a day for maximum five days a week beginning July 1, 1949.

Other measures indicated, provided space for voters' signatures on registration cards issued by Philadelphia, third class cities, boroughs towns and townships; exempted corporations holding stocks in trust from taxes on the securities;
permitted non-profit corporations established prior to July 3, 1933, to alter their charters.

Increased from $5000 to $7500 the maximum appropriation that may be made by second to eighth class counties for agricultural extension work, further regulated dental hygienists; placed new limitations on banks and fiduciaries; provided for resettlement of domestic bonus suits; authorized the milk control commission to enter into compact with milk price regulating agencies in other states to work for uniform interstate regulation of prices.

A gas-mask chemical, invented in 1946, made from the peroxides of sodium, potassium, magnesium and certain organic substances, renders the worst of known war gases harmless.

Touring Newsmen In Gloomy View On World Affairs

Editors, Publishers Complete Round-World Flight; Visit Many Nations

NEW YORK, July 1.—(INS)—A gloomy picture of world affairs was brought back by newspaper executives and publishers who completed the inaugural flight of Pan American World Airways commercial round-the-world air passenger service.

The giant Constellation plane landed at La Guardia field late yesterday afternoon. It had traveled a total of 25,003 miles, including circling and turn backs, in an elapsed time of 13 days, three hours and 10 minutes, including stopovers.

The four-motored ship was equipped with sleeping accommodations and all of the passengers alighted looking fresh and rested. During their globe-circling trip publishers and editors were received by Prime Minister Clement Attlee in London, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek in Nanjing, Gen. Douglas MacArthur at Tokyo and President Roxas of the Philippines in Manila, in addition to high officials in every country the ship landed.

Barry Paris, editor-in-chief of International News Service, said that at every opportunity the news executives aboard the plane inquired and were interviewed about the possibility of a new war. Paris said there was a sincere hope in all countries visited that there would not be one.

Frank Gannett, president of the Gannett newspapers, observed: "If we had the co-operation of Russia, I think we would have peace for a long time."

All agreed that the meetings with Gen. MacArthur, Chiang Kai-Shek and President Roxas were the high points on the trip.

International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, July 1.—(INS)—Don DeFore intends to give the film capital a summer stock company next year—and make the home folks like it, too.

"People say that one never will succeed here, but I don't believe it. I think if good shows are presented in the proper atmosphere, the company will be in big hit."

Don and three associates already have laid their plans. The location will be in Beverly Hills, at the intersection of two main thoroughfares, Wilshire and Santa Monica boulevards. The company will be housed in a giant red and white striped tent.

Said Don:

"I think the idea is a good one for the whole movie industry. So many people, particularly those who came from the stage like myself, like to play to live audiences occasionally. I think there'll be lots of stars who'll be anxious to appear with our company."

Ginger Rogers, who is quite an artist, is filling in her few spare minutes on Columbia's "It Had To Be You," modeling a life-size head of a man in clay.

Chinese Claim Communists Are In Full Retreat

Government Claims Chinese Communist Forces Suffered 50,000 Casualties In Battle

PEIPING, July 1.—(INS)—The government-controlled press today jubilantly hailed the victorious end of the battle of Szepeinghai and claimed that the Chinese Communist Army suffered fifty-thousand casualties in the struggle for the city.

Latest word from government sources was that the key railway city, sixty miles south of the Manchurian capital of Changchun was firmly in government hands and Red troops are in full retreat.

The Reds laid siege to Szepeinghai for thirty-seven days. Gen. Hsiung Shih Hui, who is President Chiang Kai-shek's representative in Manchuria, flew over Szepeinghai yesterday. Later he told the Kuuden press that the destruction and casualties were the greatest in any single battle of the Civil War.

General Hsiung said that ninety per cent of the city's houses were destroyed, principally during the street fighting which lasted for twenty days. The government official commented that the accuracy of Communist artillery was "especially alarming."

MODERN PIRATES

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—(INS)—Police in the Manayunk section of Philadelphia were confronted today with their first case of "piracy."

The International Brotherhood of Pulp Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers Union No. 392, whose headquarters backs up to the Manayunk canal, was robbed by thieves who fled with $2525 in government bonds, $245 in cash and $850 worth of dues stamps.

Let's have a PICNIC!

Wonder Bread Sandwiches Are Better Because Wonder Bread Is Slo-Baked To Stay Fresh Longer

Best part of any picnic are the "eats." And that means sandwiches! To make sure the sandwiches are soft and fresh when it comes time to eat—make them with Wonder Bread.

Because Wonder Bread is slo-baked—baked 13% longer than many ordinary kinds—to stay fresh longer. And folks love the flavor and fresh softness of Wonder Bread with its fine-knit texture.

You bet—picnics can be fun when the "eats" are managed right. So get Wonder Bread from your grocer today. And have sandwiches that are better because they stay fresh longer.

Believes Supply Of Teachers For Future Assured

HARRISBURG, July 1.—(INS)—Superintendent of Public Instruction Francis B. Haas said today the future supply of public school teachers appeared assured.

Four-year course enrollments were at the highest point in history at 14 state teachers colleges, he added. Haas said in the college year just ended, 9,676 students were enrolled in the regular four-year courses which lead to certification as elementary or high school teachers. The previous high was 8,067 students in 1937, he said.

"While this present heavy enrollment will not be felt in the form of a new supply of teachers for the next three or more years," Haas said, "it presents a very encouraging picture for the future in the state's program of teacher education."

The total of all students, including full and part-time teaching courses, veterans and students "farmed out" from Pennsylvania State college, was 11,973, Haas reported.

MILK PRICE UP CENT PER QUART IN SOME SECTIONS

HARRISBURG, July 1.—(INS)—Milk prices increased a cent a quart today in seven eastern and central Pennsylvania milk marketing areas at the end of the three-months-long spring flush period.

The increase restored consumer and producer prices to levels in effect prior to April 1 and brought milk to 12 cents a quart in the Philadelphia suburban Philadelphia, Harrisburg, York and Lan-

See Isotopes As Cure For Leukemia

Vanderbilt Chemist Reports Patients Improve Under New Treatment

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—(INS)—Dr.
J. P. B. Goodell, biochemistry instructor and assistant in medicine at Vanderbilt University, revealed that radio-active gold and man-ganese isotopes have apparently restored the health of several leukemia victims.

Dr. Goodell gave a demonstration on the use of radio-active isotopes as tracers and therapeutic agents during a five day conference in Nashville before some 200 scientists who are working with products of atomic fission.

Farmer Had Leukemia
A 48-year-old farmer afflicted with chronic lymphatic leukemia walked into the room before the scientists. Dr. Goodell said that before treatments with the isotopes,
the farmer was bed-ridden.

The farmer suffered from a swelling of the spleen, liver and other vital organs, and from loss of weight, appetite and energy. His white blood count was 954 thousand when he entered the hospital. After he was injected with 37 Vanderbilt units of radio-active gold isotopes his white cell count dropped to 260 thousand.

Eventually Sent Home
After a second injection, the white blood count was down to 85 thousand and he was sent home.

A month after the farmer was released and he went back to his farm to work, his white cell count had dropped to 20 thousand.

Several other patients were exhibited and all had shown apparent recoveries. Since the start of his experiments, Dr. Goodell has treated about 75 patients.

New Antidote
For Gangrene

CLEVELAND, July 1.—(INS)—
A new method of gangrene treatment which prevents amputation in many cases was reported in Cleveland by Dr. Morris Fishbein, editor of the Journal of the American Medical Association.

The Medical Journal editor said the new treatment is based on the action of histamine in relaxing small blood vessels and encouraging circulation in blocked areas. Dr. Wirt-schaffer and his associates found vitamin "C" would act on amino acid to produce the needed histamine.

"As a result, more blood passed into the deteriorated areas," Dr.
Fishbein said. "They were able to avoid amputations in 11 cases of gangrene and related blood ailments."

Police Investigate Injuries To Trio

Joseph Horvath, Sr., and his sons, Michael and Andrew, Wilson avenue extension, received treatment
last night in New Castle hospital for cuts, brush-burns, abrasions and bruises following a quarrel at the Horvath residence. State police took Michael and Andrew into custody for investigation. Later Michael was returned to the hospital for treatment of a stab wound in his back.

City police were called to take Michael to the hospital after an ambulance broke down. Neighbors took the elder Horvath and his other son, Andrew, to the institution. City police then notified state police, who took the brothers into custody.

"POP" DELIVERIES
HALTED BY STRIKE OF TRUCK DRIVERS

PITTSBURGH, July 1.—(INS)—
Deliveries of soft drinks were halted in sweltering Pittsburgh today when 250 drivers went on strike against 15 major bottling firms.

The strike resulted from a deadlock in negotiations between the AFL General Teamsters Union and the Pittsburgh Carbonated Beverage Association.

Union Secretary Scott Marshall said the drivers rejected a $5 weekly wage increase. They demanded $6 a week plus a one-cent a case bonus on all soft drinks.

In America's colonial days the mayor was usually appointed by the provincial or colonial governor.
Popular elections of mayors were not generally adopted in the United States until the 1820s.

New Bill Aimed To Smash Auto Finance Racket

Lichtenwalter-Sorg Bill Will Limit Interest Rates On New, Old Vehicles

HARRISBURG, July 1.—(INS)—A two-year-long campaign to curb unscrupulous automobile finance dealers was ended today with Gov. James H. Duff's approval of legislation fixing interest rates effective in 60 days.

The new act, piloted through the general assembly by speaker of the house Franklin H. Lichtenwalter and majority leader Herbert P. Sorg, limits interest on new cars to six per cent and nine per cent on vehicles two years old. Models more than two years old may not be financed at interest exceeding 12 per cent.

The Lichtenwalter-Sorg act was designed to smash a racket which unscrupulous dealers subjected purchasers to interest ranging up to 120 per cent.

Finance companies including banks, automobile dealers and collector-repossessors handling installment sales of cars must be licensed by the department of banking effective October 1.

The Lichtenwalter-Sorg act stemmed from legislation drafted by a special committee of the joint state government commission following a study begun in 1945 after ex-gov. Edward Martin received complaints that low income groups and veterans were being mulcted by unscrupulous dealers.

Governor Duff also approved a bill establishing a public building construction fund to handle bonds issued under a $50,000,000 program for mental hospital improvement, flood control and anti-pollution.

Another measure authorized schools to establish safe driving courses for students, limiting instruction for pupils under 16 years of age to classrooms.

The governor also approved legislation authorizing issuance of service medals at cost to Pennsylvanians who served in the armed forces between December 1, 1941, and September, 1945.

SWIMMING POOL ACTIVITY AT CAMP EASTBROOK

Shouts and laughter of the twenty eight happy youngsters at Camp Eastbrook could be heard long before reaching the swimming pool. They even drowned the sound of the splashing, which was terrific.

A lot has been said concerning the inhabitants of the camp, but not much about the actual location of the camp. It is located on a hill overlooking Neshannock creek. The creek is lined with willow trees, shrubs, and a few wild flowers.

A narrow twisting lane leads up to the camp. At the right of the driveway is the flag, where the campers have their morning and evening ceremonies. The camp buildings are immaculately white, surrounded by a large lawn. Down a hill to the left of these buildings is the main attraction for the youthful campers—the swimming pool. Morning swimming classes are conducted by the counselors, and in the afternoon, everyone swims, just any way they can. After five days in camp, a few of the braver souls have summoned enough courage to dive, or jump, from the diving board.

Two Russian Wolfhounds Are Licensed In County

A total of $13,375.85 literally "went to the dogs" last year in Lawrence county. At least that is the sum that was paid for 9,239 dog licenses, according to statistics given out by Mrs. Mildred Sample, state license clerk, at the county treasurer's office.

She said that although people say they think so much of their pets, they often forget, or neglect, to get the license at the proper time. About two weeks after the deadline notices begin to appear in the newspaper and that reminds negligent persons that their dogs need a new license.

Many people, too, request their telephone number as their dog license so that they will be able to remember it.

Most Popular Types

Cottles, beagle hounds and cocker spaniels vie for first place in popularity. Spitz, terriers and mongrels also rank high as pets. The most rare dog seems to be the Russian wolfhound. Only two licenses were issued in Lawrence county last year for this breed of dog.

There were also a few St. Bernards, huskies and coach dogs in the list. However, it does require a vivid imagination to think of relaxing in the big arm chair with a Russia wolfhound curled up on your lap, doesn't it?

CHILD INJURED

Little Agnes Scarvelis, aged three years, daughter of Mrs. Rene Scarvelis, of 4 North Beaver street, was treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital, at 2:15 p. m., Sunday, for a laceration of the right hip, and contusions of the right hip and lower part of the right leg, received when struck by an automobile near her home.

A new carrier of malaria, the Anopheles crucians mosquito, active throughout southern United States, was discovered in 1946.

Member of Almira Home Board Dies

BUTLER, July 1.—Mrs. Florence Campbell Brandon, 69, wife of Attorney W. D. Brandon, died at the family residence, 519 North Main street, early Monday.

Mrs. Brandon was born in Pittsburgh, a daughter of the late Howard D. and Mary Dickey Campbell. She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mrs. William M. Young, of Wartz Creek, Mich., and Mrs. Walter S. Kenton of Detroit; a sister, Mrs. Marshall Phipps, of Franklin, and two grandchildren.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian church and a member of the board of the Almira Home, New Castle.

Derry Avery, aged 7 years, of 633 Forest street, was treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital, Sunday evening, for a laceration of the side, which he received when he was bitten by a dog near his home.

The first hotel was built in Coney Island, New York, in 1825.

Probe Death Of Mercer Stonecutter

MERCER, July 1.—Authorities today are probing the death of a 42-year-old Mercer stonecutter, James A. Chestnut, who died Sunday in the Grove City hospital after he was struck by a truck as he slept on a parking lot.

Chestnut was hit by the truck operated by Leonard DeArango of R. D. 5, Mercer, as he slept near the bushes lining the parking lot in Pine township, several miles west of Grove City.

Acting Coroner William Courtney of Mercer county said he would decide in a few days whether an inquest would be held.

Teen-Age Girl Of Pittsburgh Takes Own Life

PITTSBURGH, July 1.—(INS)—A 16-year-old Pittsburgh girl was dead today, a victim of a self-inflicted bullet wound because she couldn't stand those hurt looks anymore.

Doris Jane Kirsopp, penned a note to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Parnella Kirsopp, and a brother, Don, 17. She then fired a 22-caliber rifle bullet through her head, police said. The girl was believed to have tripped the trigger with a clothes hanger, authorities declared.

She wrote: "I'm sorry for what has happened before, but this is the only way out. I couldn't stand seeing you and dad give me those hurt looks anymore. . . . Your loving daughter, June. P.S.—Give all my baby sitting jobs to Naomi and Shirley."

On the back of the note, were the words: "I just wanted to go up the street. . . ."

Bessemer Brick Workers Still Idle

At noon today, no settlement had been reached or seemed imminent in the controversial wage issue between the Metropolitan Paving Brick company, Bessemer, and the United Steelworkers of America, CIO.

The termination of the one-year contract, effective Sunday at midnight, has caused a production halt at the local plant, idling approximately 140 employees.

Thus far, the company it is reported has offered employees an hourly increase of 6½ cents, not meeting the 12½ cents demand of the United Steelworkers. The CIO in addition to the 12½ cents per hour increase, seeks three weeks' vacation for employees with 25 years service, and an insurance program in line with other industries.

Federal mediator, Charles H. Ward, of the U. S. Department of Labor arrived in the city Monday, and it is anticipated that he will be instrumental in assisting a settlement.

HISTORY REPEATS

PITTSBURGH, July 1.—(INS)—History repeated itself for a Pittsburgh motorist.

Bessie Smith was arrested by Patrolman John Truman today on a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor and driving without a license.

Last year Miss Smith's license was revoked on a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor. The arresting officer, Patrolman John Truman.

Pa Newc Observes

babies were born at the institution for another June record, the previous high number for any previous June being 101 in 1945, thus maintaining the record breaking performance of the stork, which started last July and has been continued every month since then. There were 65 boys and 68 girls in last month's baby crop.

Stewart Arrow, greens keeper of the Castle Hills Golf course reported to Pa Newc this morning, that a carrier pigeon evidently strayed from some loft had come to roost at the golf course. The pigeon carried a band with the following markings: AU-46-56514. It also had a rubber band on the left leg.

Lou Reed, of Shenango township reports that he has corn on his place that is "up to his knees", and with the present corn weather will make great strides. Says the cabbage in the little patch of one of Pa Newc's boys on East Washington street, is the best he has seen yet; heading up splendidly.

Pa Newc observed one local lassie this morning, enroute to work who was hoping to have an excellent sun tan to show the girls in the office, but instead was doing quite a bit of peeling. The sunshine of the weekend produced many an overdone sun tan. Pools of the district drew record crowds as relief from the heat was sought.

The Highland Heights road, which is taking the detour traffic from Route 18 is getting quite a "heating". Pa Newc noted in traversing the road over the week end. The heavy truck traffic has caused numerous holes to appear in the road. The heat of the past few days has also brought the oil of the road to the surface, making driving conditions hazardous in spots.

Several major cleaning and decorating jobs were in progress on the exterior of a number of downtown buildings on Monday. Each job attracted the usual number of on-lookers and kibitzers, who by their conversation knew more about the task than the skilled workmen who were doing an efficient piece of work.

Buses running to the East Side were well filled with youngsters and older ones headed for Cascade Park on Monday. The day being Kiddies Day, drew an avalanche of boys and girls to ride the amusements at reduced prices. Two new concessions have been added in the past few days for the benefit of the kiddies. A new seaplane is in operation and a ferris wheel has been installed. The pool proved the most popular place in the park.

Some industries and business places about the city have shut down completely this week to give their employees a vacation. Many of the vacationists have left the city for out of town rests, while others are sticking around home and doing a number of chores that have needed to be done for a long time.

Well drilling operations on the South Mercer street sidewalk on Monday afternoon gave many a city dweller his first insight into how a deep well is drilled. The tall drilling apparatus was attracting much attention. The workmen were little perturbed at the spectators and calmly went about their work.

One of the auto license plates which has been seen around town for the past few days, has come a long distance to get here. It is a Canal Zone plate, and is on the car of Mr. and Mrs. Jack LaRue, former residents, who are now living there. They are registered at the Leslie Hotel.

Reception To Honor W. J. Davis And Wife

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Davis, of Lakeland, Fla., a reception will be tendered them Wednesday night in the First Congregational church. The reception is not confined to members of the church but is for all friends of the former New Castle couple.

Mr. Davis was a pioneer business man in New Castle and before the turn of the century was one of the founders of the First Congregational church. Some years ago he retired from active business and went to Lakeland, Florida, where he has resided since.

TRADITION BROKEN
PORTLAND, Ore.—(INS)—The tradition that boats are named after men long gone from the scene has been broken. The James A. C. Tait, a 65-foot steel tug in Portland harbor, is named after a vice-president of the company who is very much alive and an active business here for more than 40 years.

Emmanuel Swedenborg, Swedish scientist and theologian (1688-1772), was born in Stockholm. In 1745 he professed to enjoy free access to the spirit world.

Burglar Who Had Brain Operation Given Sentence

PITTSBURGH, July 1.—(INS)—Millard Wright, self admitted burglar, was sent to prison for two years today despite a delicate brain operation to cure him of "criminal tendencies".

Judge J. Malcolm McDonald ruled that Wright, who has spent 15 of his 38 years behind prison bars, was sane when he robbed 10 Mt. Lebanon homes in 1945, adding:

"I hope he can be rehabilitated so that he can eventually get a parole, but I doubt it."

Judge McDonald's anger was aroused by the brain operation which Wright submitted to in April.

He said Wright apparently underwent this operation at the insistence of his counsel in the hope he would escape serving sentence.

Camp Eastbrook Indians Enjoy Boatride Monday

Camp East Brook Indians of the Y. W. C. A. received a special treat on Monday afternoon when they were invited by Jack Gerson to go boat riding down at his cottage.

Mr. Gerson's summer camp is also located on Neshannock creek, about a half mile from Camp East Brook.

With the counselors doing the paddling, three children climbed into each rowboat and went for a 15-minute ride. While they weren't riding they were making good use of the swings which they found near the cottage.

In the evening an amateur night was held, with singing, dancing, poetry reading and an occasional piano solo. A bathing beauty contest was held, but there is a big dark mystery as to the winner.

In the evening the Indians decided to go for a moonlight hike. They sang as they walked, for about three miles. When they got back all they could manage to do was gulp a glass of milk and crawl into bed. No trouble getting the Indians quiet on Monday night.

Because of the fact that the Fourth of July falls on Friday, the weekly drill session of the Headquarters and Service batteries of the 229th Field Artillery, will be held on Thursday evening, instead of Friday.

Any men interested in affiliating with the guard may visit the Army and see what the guard here is doing. Commander Mitchell states. There are a lot of nice openings in the 229th, and the rate of pay now is exceptionally good.

Half Million To Fish Today

HARRISBURG, July 1.—(INS)—Pennsylvania's five-months long 1947 bass season opened today amid predictions of excellent fishing in state-stocked streams.

More than 500,000 anglers were expected to crowd favorite haunts to try their luck at landing some of the 449,000 bass released in rivers and lakes by the State Fish Commission last fall. More than a million bass have been placed in streams during the past two years.

Commissioner of Fisheries C. A. French reported "streams and rivers in most sections of the state are in good condition and barring heavy storms, the opening should be one of the best in many years."

French warned fishermen they may keep fish nine inches or longer and are limited to six legal sized fish daily. The season will end November 30.

Pymatuning Good

Some of the choicest fishing spots were said to be located on the upper Delaware river, North shore of the Susquehanna river, Pymatuning and Wallenpack lakes and the Allegheny river.

In addition to bass, sportsmen may take lake trout, muskellunge, pickerel and pike perch. The river trout season will continue until July 31.

French reminded sportsmen that fishing license fees will be $1.50 until January 1 when, under legislation recently signed by Gov. James H. Duffs, the price will increase to $2.00.

Twenty-five cents of the increase will be earmarked for research in stocking improvement.

LAUREL JUNIORS WIN FOURTH

The Laurel Juniors of the city playground league won their fourth straight game Monday, downing Shenango 11-10. Nick Passias was the winning hurler with Konginos and Weber the feature hitters. Friday the Juniors handed West Side a trimming, 14-0. The team is undefeated to date. Ted Lewis is the instructor on the Laurel Avenue grounds.

Lockleys, Gus' Nine, And Croton A. C. Win

Lockleys, winners of the first half title in the American Legion Junior league race, when they won every game, started off with a bang last night by swamping the West Side A. C. 16-0 with Kerr, their leading hurler, allowing but one hit, Croton A. C. was also on a rampage, downing the Ecclesian club 20-4, with Eppinger giving up but three hits; and Gus' Nine blanked the strong Columbus club, Szuba giving but one hit, a scratch single.

Bogdon of Lockleys had 4 for 4, including a double; Dado had a double among three hits, Butler a triple and Gray a homer among the 20 hits secured by Lockleys.

Szuba also hit a double with two on and had two singles to help win his own game for Gus' Nine. Columbus club hurlers gave eight walks and hit three batters.

Heavy hitting was done by Frank Micco and Sheehy for Croton with Eppinger and Orlando forming the Croton battery, and Richards and Andrews performing for Ecclesian club.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Lockleys ..... 330 320 5-16 29 0
West Side ..... 000 000 0-0 1 1

A.Z.A. Softball Team Defeats Sharon Club

New Castle A. Z. A. softball team traveled to Sharon Sunday and came home the winner over the Sharon A. Z. A. in a game that was forfeited at the end of the fifth with New Castle leading 14-10. The visitors took a 12-0 lead at the end of the second and coasted in the rest of the way.

Conn hurled six-hit ball for four innings and Cohen allowed two men in the fifth with Conn getting credit for the win. Sharon scored but four earned runs over the distance as erratic fielding accounted for six runs.

Krash led the New Castle attack with two home runs while Schenberger, J. Cohen, S. Cohen and Miller batted out a total of two triples and four doubles, part of a 13-hit barrage. Joe Ellovich was losing hurler as Dick Mark led Sharon's assault with three hits.

Law Signed By Governor Duff Broadens Tax Base For Local Governments

HARRISBURG, July 1.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff today signed legislation to broaden the tax base for most local governments.

The measure, described by Duff as the "highlighting" achievement of the General Assembly during the 1947 session, gave virtually unlimited revenue sources to all cities except Philadelphia, boroughs, first class townships and all school districts except Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

The political subdivisions were empowered to levy taxes on sales, amusements and all items subject to but not now bearing state imposts. Utilities governed by the Commonwealth were exempted from the legislation.

The measure was sponsored by William J. Stonier (R) Lackawanna and Charles A. Brunner (R) Montgomery.

Duff also approved legislation sponsored by Sen. Weldon B. Heyburn (R) Delaware, to retain state control of oleomargarine retailing.

The bill retained $2 retail fees on margarine, to finance policing costs. Restrictions were imposed on coloring and retailers were required to register sales with the agriculture. The legislation stemmed from a state supreme court decision nullifying 45-year-old $500 wholesaler and $100 retailer license fees.

Farm and labor groups objected to the legislation on grounds that the restrictions were "discriminatory."

Bill Will Curb Strip Mining In Hard Coal Fields

HARRISBURG, July 1.—(INS)—Strict curbs on strip mining operations in the anthracite coal fields were imposed today under provisions of legislation carrying the signature of Gov. James H. Duff.

Bonds of $200 for each acre to be worked will be required from operators along with a $25 an acre tax to be renewed annually.

Exposed anthracite must be covered with five feet of earth and adequate drainage provided. Grasses and shrubs must be planted on back fills and spoilbanks by operators as a condition to compliance with the provisions of the act.

Under one section of the act, operators may hire the state department of forests and waters to cover exposed coal and plant shrubs at $60 an acre.

TRICKLE OF COAL COMING FROM STRIP MINES IN DISTRICT

PITTSBURGH, July 1.—(INS)—Soft coal trickled into western Pennsylvania market today from strip mines and a scattered few deep mines.

Coal mine operators said 50,000 tons of coal is coming daily from strip operations in the West Virginia Panhandle and about 15,000 tons from similar operations in western Pennsylvania.

The West Virginia miners are working under a special agreement with the operators and the union because of unsteady work during the last two years. The western Pennsylvania mines producing are mostly non-union operations, the operators reported.

PITTSBURGH HOTEL RATE TO INCREASE

PITTSBURGH, July 1.—(INS)—Rate increase not to exceed 15 per cent will go into effect shortly in Pittsburgh's eight major hotels, E. H. Gallup, executive secretary of the Pittsburgh Hotels Association, announced today.

Gallup said that since 1942, hotel costs have increased more than 70 per cent.

The increases affect only permanent guest rooms which total less than 20 per cent of the total rooms.

The first lace establishment in the United States was that of the Jennings Lace Works in Brooklyn, N. Y., nearly 50 years ago.

Everyone Safe As Army Vessel Rams Jap Coast

YOKOHAMA, July 1.—(INS)—The U. S. army transport Admiral Sims ran aground today off the Yokosuka naval base, with 1,444 officers, enlisted men and dependents aboard.

Authorities said that all of the passengers were safe and in no danger.

The 16,000-ton vessel was en route from Manila to the United States, via Japan. She went aground while entering the Yokohama anchorage.

Tugs will try to pry the transport loose during the night. If they do not succeed, the passengers will be taken ashore by LST's on Wednesday.

Port officials said that the vessel is in no danger of sinking or capsizing.

PROMINENT SHARON MAN DIES MONDAY

SHARON, July 1.—Harold E. Bell, aged 51, prominent Sharon resident died at his home Monday, following a three month illness. The founder of a certified public accountant firm which bore his name, his death came as a shock to his many friends.

Born in Spencer, Mass. He was graduated from Worcester high school in Massachusetts and the Holy Cross college in 1918. The deceased is survived by his wife, three children and one sister. Funeral arrangements are as yet incomplete.

WOUNDS FATAL TO WOMAN SHOT IN FAMILY ROW

CHARLESTON, Pa., July 1.—(INS)—Mrs. Melvina Garvitt, 38, of Pricedale, died in the Charleston Monessen hospital yesterday of bullet wounds. She had been shot in the abdomen and arm following a family quarrel.

A brother, Gordon Cribbs, also of Pricedale, is being held for questioning, police said.

ROB TWO HOTELS

PITTSBURGH, July 1.—(INS)—Armed bandits held up and robbed two downtown Pittsburgh hotels early today and escaped with loot estimated at $800.

Two alleged gunmen walked into the Edison hotel and held up a clerk and cashier and left with $500. A short time later the same pair appeared at the Mayflower hotel, a half block off the Steel City's theatrical district, and robbed the cashier of $300.

Youths Riding Motorcycle Hurt

Dorothy Shaner, aged 17 years, of R. D. 2, Volant; and Robert Kildoo, aged 21 years, of R. D. 5, are undergoing treatment in the Jameson Memorial hospital for injuries received, when the motorcycle, on which they were riding was involved in a collision with an automobile on Route 19, Sunday, shortly after midnight.

Miss Shaner suffered a laceration of the left foot, and dislocation of the lower part of the left leg. Kildoo had a compound fracture of both bones of the lower left leg.

The owl cannot move its eye in the socket, but can turn its head around in almost a complete circle without moving its body.
